

Duke | UNDERGRADUATE ADMISSIONS

Andrew,

We're delighted you're a member of the Duke Class of 2030!

This email provides important information about your transition to Duke, so make sure you read it carefully.

CONDITIONS OF ADMISSION

When you enrolled, you accepted Duke's conditions of admission. The terms are included below for your reference. If you have concerns about meeting any of the terms, please complete this form.

NO ENROLLMENT DEPOSIT

Duke does not require a deposit to confirm enrollment. You are fully enrolled for next year.

ID NUMBERS

You will use several different types of ID numbers when you sign up for housing, classes, etc. To log in to DukeHub, use your network ID (NetID), which you will receive via email within about a week after enrollment. Once you log in to DukeHub, you can retrieve your Duke Unique ID for housing, registration, and more. Your Student ID is (Student ID: 3223554).

SCHEDULE CHANGES

You were admitted with the expectation that you will continue with the courses in which you are currently enrolled. However, should you wish to propose changes to your senior schedule, please fill out the form on your Duke Application Portal. The Office of Undergraduate Admissions will review your proposal and let you know if we approve it.

GAP YEARS

Each year, some students defer their enrollment for one (and, in rare cases, two) year(s). During their gap year, students engage in the arts, volunteer work, travel, internships, military obligations, religious missions, and more. Students who wish to participate in Duke's intentional gap year community are invited to apply to the Duke Gap Year Program, which offers the possibility of funding to support eligible gap year experiences. Please submit your gap year requests here, and contact dukegapyear@duke.edu with any questions.

LOOKING AHEAD

- Review your "Blue Book," which will arrive electronically later this spring. It will tell you everything you need to know about course registration, housing, dining, and more.
- Submit your final high school transcript (required upon high school graduation).
- Read information for new students from Duke Student Affairs: studentaffairs.duke.edu/new-students.
- Consult the 2026-2027 Academic Calendar.
- Attend New Student Orientation in August.

We look forward to seeing you and your family on campus in August!

CONDITIONS OF ADMISSION

By accepting Duke's offer of admission, I acknowledge my understanding and acceptance of the following conditions:

- My acceptance to Duke is conditional and is based upon my satisfactory completion of the academic program in which I was enrolled when I was admitted, upon my maintaining my academic work at a level of academic achievement equal or superior to my past performance, and upon my maintaining a high standard of personal conduct. I will notify the Duke University Dean of Undergraduate Admissions within 48 hours if I fail to uphold these standards, either through my academic performance or my personal conduct, at any time before I matriculate in August 2026. This will include, but is not limited to, any extended absence or withdrawal from school, any school disciplinary action including probation, suspension or expulsion, or any legal action including citation or arrest. I understand that by indicating my intent to enroll I am now subject to all rules and regulations of Duke University including abiding by the Community Standard. I further understand that any change or decline as mentioned above, or failure to notify the Dean of Undergraduate Admissions immediately, may result in deferred matriculation or revocation of my admission.
- I confirm my intention to enroll at Duke and certify that I have not made a deposit and/or enrollment commitment to another college or university and will not do so, other than to accept an offer of admission from a waiting list. If I accept an offer of admission from a waiting list I will immediately notify the Duke University Undergraduate Admissions Office. I understand that if I violate this agreement, my admission status at Duke and any other college or university will be subject to review and possible revocation, and that Duke may share the identity of enrolling students with other colleges and universities.
